Amanda Lynn Daeges, ND attended the National College of Natural Medicine. Dr. Amanda Lynn has immersed herself in studying and working in alternative medicine for the last decade. She was also a licensed massage therapist in Oregon for 13 years.

Now as a Family Medicine Physician her work has gone to a new level of finding the cause of illness and correcting the body's blocks to allow and support the body's ability to heal itself.

Born and raised in the area, Amanda cares about the wellness of her community and is excited to bring Naturopathic medicine from the old country into your home.
